INT. KITCHEN - NIGHT

KYLE; bearded, early thirties and medium build dashes around his kitchen wearing a white T-shirt and gray sweatpants.

Kyle carries in a long oval-shaped poker table and quickly sets it up.

(V.O.)
We know you miss having your friends over-

Kyle SLAMS a case on the table and opens it to reveal rows of colored poker chips.

Kyle pours snacks in multiple bowls and places them carefully on the poker table.

(V.O.)
Eating your food-

Kyle fills a cooler with cans of beer, dumps a bag of ice in it then slides it towards the poker table with his foot.

(V.O.)
Drinking your drinks-

Kyle opens his wallet and pulls out a nondescript wad of cash.

EXT. FRONT PORCH - NIGHT

Kyle hands the cash to a DELIVERY DRIVER who hands him a large pizza box.

(V.O.)
Trying to take your money.

INT. KITCHEN - NIGHT

Kyle PLOPS down at the poker table; laptop in hand, hooded sweatshirt on with the hood up and sunglasses. He places the laptop on the table, pulls out a deck of cards and SLAPS them on the table.

(V.O.)
But sadly, you can't-

Kyle pulls out a beer, opens it and places it on the deck of cards using them as a coaster.

Pan out to show kyle sitting at the table alone staring at his laptop screen and shuffling poker chips with one hand.

(V.O.)

Luckily Poker Stars Home Games are the next best thing.

Close up of Kyle CLICKING on the Poker stars icon on his desktop. He catches a glimpse of his reflection in the screen. Kyle pulls off his hood, YANKS the sunglasses off his head and tosses them over his shoulder.

Kyle CLICKS the screen again and window pops up with all his friends on a video chat.

KYLE

Hey guys! Are we ready to play?

A smile beams across Kyle's face.
